

La Locanda del Capitano

This "locanda" is one of the most charming and romantic hotel in Umbria. Located in the heart of a medieval town of Montone, this Locanda (original building of 1100) was the ancient house where Braccio Fortebraccio, the famous Condottiere, once lived. The beauty of the village itself its exclusive and welcoming setting, a fairy-tale atmosphere where noise and pollution are unknown, make the Locanda del Capitano the ideal place for anyone wishing to regenerate both body and mind.

The rooms, decorated by the owners in the ancient local tradition, are equipped with en-suite bathrooms, telephone, cable TV and minibar. The small and exclusive restaurant is personally managed by the owners and offers enogastronomic menus based on regional specialties with a personal touch. Its cellars are stocked with more than 700 labels of specially selected regional and national wines.
